5.3 The Chairman (m/f/x)

Appendix: Quotation from the constitution/ ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION:

5.3 The Chairman

Art. 70. - The Chairman shall preside over the General Assembly and the Board of Directors but does not hold voting right in the General Assembly. He shall be given the competence to act as representative of the VZW in legal and extra-legal external matters, without the need or obligation to confirm any decision or special mandate vis-à-vis third parties, without prejudice to what is stated hereafter about the interventions of the Treasurer. He shall at the same time be made competent to act with respect to the daily management and the external representation on behalf of the association in matters of import as may pertain. He shall be assisted by the Treasurer for any of the financial dealings, the accounting procedures, and the budget control.

Art. 71. - He shall be responsible for preparing the annual accounts and the annual report for adoption by the General Assembly. The Chairman shall be accountable for the Secretariat.

Art 72. - The Chairman shall give a report to the General Assembly about the activities of the VZW, its preparations, budget, quality issues – amongst which time scheduling – and the composition of reports about its ongoing activities. Furthermore, the Chairman shall also be accountable to the General Assembly for the activities of the different working groups as they pertain to expenditure and costs.

Art 73. - The Chairman shall be appointed and dismissed by the General Assembly. To that end, the General Assembly shall in due time appoint a nomination committee for the appointment of candidates and shall present its choices to the General Assembly. The Chairman shall be appointed for a period of maximum three years. He may be re-appointed twice to hold the office for the same duration.

Art 74. - In the event that the Chairman shall become indisposed to attend meetings, the Board of Directors shall appoint an Interim Chairman from amongst the members of the Board of Directors in order that the latter may on a temporary basis assume the function of the Chairman until a new permanent Chairman has been appointed.

Art 75. - The Chairman does not represent any member but shall act independently to serve the general interests of the VZW and of all of its members. However, his candidacy must be approved and supported by his own National Maintenance Society.

Art 76. - Within the limits of the budget and the allotted funds, and in the event that other opportunities should present themselves, the Chairman may receive support in the performance of his tasks by the establishment of and having recourse to working groups and/or project groups and to operations and activities assigned to other outside organisations.

Art 77. - Other extra-ordinary issues shall be dealt with in the standing rules and by-laws and in a written agreement between the VZW and the Chairman. This agreement shall be signed by the Chairman and by the Board of Directors, following approval and adoption by the General Assembly.
